

Invasive Species Council Newsletter

Description

The latest edition of the "Feral Herald" the newsletter of the Invasive Species Council is available for download from their website here it has a range of interesting articles and raises the spectre of governments shirking their responsibilities in the management of invasive species. Australia has the highest number of invasive species than any other country.

Category

1. News Archives

Date Created

2012/08/08

Author

tony default watermark